

tion of them only have been accepted. The corridors and passages of the Capitol will be occupied for hospital purposes. Preparations are now in progress.

GEN. KEARNEY NOT WOUNDED.
There is no truth in the report that Gen. Kearney is wounded.

ARRIVAL OF WOUNDED.
Vehicles have all day been arriving here with wounded, a large number of whom require but little surgical attention.

THE SALE OF SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS.
The order from headquarters of the Military District of Washington, prohibiting the retail of spirituous liquors within this district, operates upon grocers and all other dealers engaged in their sale, some of whom have removed their stock, while others have stored it away in secure places. The restriction will probably be of only temporary duration.

ORDERED ON PROVOST DUTY.
The 149th Pennsylvania regiment have been detailed for Provost duty, their predecessors having been ordered elsewhere.

ENGAGEMENT ON THE JAMES RIVER.

COM. WILKES AT WORK.

How an Earnest Man Fulfills his Word.

CITY POINT UTTERLY DEMOLISHED

PORTSMOUTH, MONDAY, AUG. 30, 1862.

City Point has been entirely demolished by the Union gunboats. For some time past the Rebels have been firing into the transports passing up and down the James River. Commodore Wilkes sent the Rebels word that if it was not discontinued he would destroy their rendezvous, City Point. On Thursday last the Rebels brought down to City Point eight cannon and about two hundred riflemen, and opened fire upon the Union flotilla, which at the time was abreast of the place, whereupon our gunboats opened fire upon them, and demolished every building in the place, and dispersed the Rebel force.

Reinforcements ordered to James Island—Disgraceful Assault by a Union Army Officer.

PORTSMOUTH, MONDAY, AUG. 30, 1862.

The steamship Baltic arrived here this morning and awaits orders.

Reinforcements are ordered to-day to Jamestown Island.

An affray took place in the hotel at Fortress Monroe yesterday afternoon, which has caused some excitement and comment among the Union people of this place.

Mr. Berford, correspondent of The N. Y. Times, was expressing his disapproval to a Rebel officer, being entertained by one of our prominent Union officers, when the secessionist officer stepped up and said: "I am the secessionist you speak of—what have you to say about it?" At the same time a Union officer stepped between them, and said to Mr. Berford: "This is my friend, and in future, what you have to say of him, you will please say to me," and took his secessionist friend out of the room. At that time Capt. McIntire of the New-York 99th Regiment approached Mr. B., saying: "This is my quarrel; you have no right to express your opinion here as you were told yesterday you were no gentleman." Mr. B. replied: "That is false, and any one who says it, lies," whereupon Capt. McIntire struck Mr. Berford a severe blow in the face, the effects of which he will carry for some weeks. The Rebel officer referred to was the commander of the Rebel steamer which came down the James River and towed off two schooners while the action was going on between the Monitor and Merrimack last spring, and his son is the present commander of the new Merrimack. Mr. Berford is an aged citizen, perfectly loyal, and worthy of the respect of all gentlemen. There is much complaint made of this transaction by all the Union officers connected with the Union army.

FROM MEMPHIS.

A Meeting to Form a Band of Guerrillas Broken Up—Eighteen Prisoners Taken.

MEMPHIS, TENN., SATURDAY, AUG. 30, 1862.

A meeting called yesterday, twelve miles south-east of Memphis, to organize a guerrilla band, was surrounded and captured by a company of Unionists. Eighteen prisoners were taken.

MEMPHIS, THURSDAY, AUG. 28, 1862.

The following is a list of some of the killed and wounded in the recent Bull Run battle:

Lieut. Thomas J. Little, 10th Massachusetts, wounded in the chest and arm.

J. F. Strong, Co. F, 5th Penn. Inf., in the arm.
John Smith, Co. A, 5th N. Y. Inf., collar bone broken.
Adjutant M. Phillips, 10th Pennsylvania Reserve, wounded severely.
Lieut. S. R. O'Connell, Co. A, 5th Pennsylvania, to the face, slightly.
C. L. Stinson, Co. H, 36th N. Y. Inf., in the left hand.
Andrew Cassidy, Co. L, 4th N. Y. Inf., in the hand slightly.
E. B. Smith, Co. F, 5th Penn. Inf., in the hand slightly.
Jacob Hartman, Co. F, 5th Penn. Inf., in the arm.
Col. Hayes, Co. F, 5th Penn. Inf., in the arm.
Lieut. S. A. Craig, 10th Penn. Inf., in the arm.
The two latter officers have arrived in this city.

Proclamation.
BY EDWIN D. MORGAN, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEW-YORK.

Whereas, I did by Proclamation on the seventeenth day of July, 1862, order, on behalf of the State, a Bounty of Fifty Dollars to each private soldier who should thereupon volunteer into the service of the United States, the purpose being to promote enlistments into the Regiments then in the field and to hasten the organization and completion of new ones until the State's quota of Fifty-nine Thousand Seven Hundred Men, called for by the President, should enter the service of the Government; and whereas it is believed that the latter object has been accomplished;

Therefore, and after consultation with those officers charged especially by law with superintending the fiscal concerns of the State, I do hereby proclaim and declare that the said Bounty of Fifty Dollars will not be paid to any Volunteer into the new Regiments, whose enlistment shall not have been made on or prior to the sixth day of September, 1862; and I do hereby further declare that the said Bounty of FIFTY DOLLARS will, until further notice, be continued and paid to private soldiers who may enlist or be continued for three years or the War to fill up the Regiments, Battalions, and Batteries of New-York Volunteers which were in the field before the second day of July, 1862, and to those only.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed the Great Seal of the State at the City of Albany, this thirtieth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

EDWIN D. MORGAN.

By the Governor:
LOCKWOOD L. DODD, Private Secretary.

Excitement in Philadelphia—The Friends and Opponents of Gen. McClellan.

PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, SEPT. 1, 1862.

The New-York Tribune's report of the second Battle of Bull Run produced the greatest excitement in this city, on being posted on the bulletin boards. In some cases altercations occurred between the excited friends and opponents of Gen. McClellan. About noon The Tribune's dispatches were torn from the boards, on information being received that the Government had ordered The Tribune office to be closed in consequence of the publication of this horrible rumor.

Another Rebel Espionage Caught—Unsuccessful Attempt of a Rebel Agent to Cross the Frontier.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE EVENING POST.

NIAGARA FALLS, SATURDAY, AUG. 30, 1862.

Another Rebel emissary attempted to cross the Suspension Bridge to Canada this morning, but was arrested. He was dressed as a female, and carried a baby, which he pretended to be nursing. He was rather handsomely dressed, and wore a thick veil.

It is rumored that the arrested man is a Rebel of no small importance. His trunks and papers are in possession of the Provost Marshal, and there is a great deal of mystery and excitement in regard to his identity.

FIGHT AT BOLIVAR, TENN.

Defeat of the Rebels—Official Report of Gen. Grant.

WASHINGTON, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1862.

GRANT'S HEADQUARTERS, AUGUST 31, 1862.

Major-Gen. HALLACK, General-in-Chief, Washington.

(GENERAL.) The following dispatch is received from Bolivar, Tenn.:

Col. Hogg, in command of the 30th and 29th Ohio infantry, and some cavalry, was attacked by about 4,000 Rebels yesterday.

Our troops behaved well, driving the enemy, whose loss was over 100.

Our loss is 25 men killed and wounded, Col. Hogg being one of the number.

U. S. GRANT, Major-Gen. Commanding.

CAIRO, ILL., AUG. 31, 1862.

Memphis advises say that on the 25th inst., Col. Wood attacked 3,000 Rebels at Bolivar, Tenn., completely routing them after a short engagement. Our loss is one killed. The Rebel loss is not stated.

Death of Col. Fletcher Webster.

BOSTON, MONDAY, SEPT. 1, 1862.

A dispatch to Gov. Andrew states that Colonel Fletcher Webster of the 12th Massachusetts Regiment was mortally wounded in battle on Saturday, and has since died.

Col. Fletcher Webster.

WASHINGTON, MONDAY, SEPT. 1, 1862.

There is concurrent testimony as to the fact that Col. Fletcher Webster was severely if not mortally wounded. He was taken from the field by four of his men, by order of Capt. Harmon, who, himself, was wounded in the shoulder. The whereabouts of the former is not known; the latter is in this city.

The Thirty-sixth Massachusetts and Twentieth Maine Regiments.

BOSTON, MONDAY, SEPT. 1, 1862.

The steamer Merrimack has been chartered to convey the 36th Massachusetts and 20th Maine Regiments to Washington.

Both regiments will embark to-morrow.

The Rebels Marching on Fort Donelson.

CAIRO, ILL., AUG. 31, 1862.

Dispatches are received at headquarters here, that the Rebels are marching on Fort Donelson, with the purpose of attacking it.

The number of the Rebels is not known.

The Captured Rebel Steamer Fair Play—Gen. Curtis.

CAIRO, ILL., AUG. 31, 1862.

The Rebel steamer Fair Play, captured up the Yazoo River a few days since, has arrived here.

Gen. Curtis and his staff have also arrived here.

The General has leave of absence to attend the Pacific Railroad meeting at Chicago.

Brigadier-General Blenker.

WASHINGTON, MONDAY, SEPT. 1, 1862.
